Film: Tom Hanks film "Greyhound" on Apple TV.

"U.S. Navy Cmdr. Ernest Krause is assigned to lead an Allied convoy across the Atlantic during World War II. His convoy, however, is pursued by German U-boats. Although this is Krause's first wartime mission, he finds himself embroiled in what would come to be known as the longest, largest and most complex naval battle in history: The Battle of the Atlantic."

There's lots of technical language but it really gives a thrilling sense of what the battle was like

New book

“Out of the Darkness – the Germans 1942-2022” by Frank Trentmann.

Oliver Moody, The Times’s Germany correspondent, entitled his review “How the Germans became good (and rather smug)” and then said: “an impressive account of how Germany built a new identity for itself after the barbaric Nazi years”.
